

2007 Winners of the United Way Nonprofit Awards of Excellence

The United Way Excellence in Nonprofit Board Governance Award, underwritten by SunTrust Bank, Charlottesville, was bestowed on the Charlottesville Free Clinic Board of Directors for their establishment of effective management policies and procedures, their work assuring adequate human and financial resources for the organization, and their active promotion of the organization throughout the community. The Charlottesville Free Clinic received $2,500 to further its mission.

*Ray Mishler
Charlottesville Free Clinic*

The United Way Award of Excellence in Nonprofit Leadership, underwritten by Hantzmon Wiebel LLP, was given to Gordon Walker, CEO of the Jefferson Area Board for Aging. For Gordon's exemplary efforts, JABA was awarded $2,500 to continue their outstanding service to the community.

*Gordon Walker
JABA*

Board Governance review panel chair, Leonard Sandridge, noted the difficulty in choosing just one award recipient, and announced a one-time Inspirational Achievement Award for the Building Goodness Foundation, along with a $1,000 donation to that organization.

*Jack Stoner
Building Goodness Foundation*